Zonta Club of Washington, D.C. and The Zonta Club of Washington Foundation Award $66,000 in Scholarship Funds for 2019-2020

Washington, D.C., August 13, 2019... The Zonta Club of Washington, D.C. (Club) and The Zonta Club of Washington Foundation (Foundation) are pleased to announce they have awarded scholarships to 16 outstanding women attending universities in the District of Columbia.

The Club awarded $41,000 through its medical and nursing scholarship programs established by benefactors Edith SeVille Coale, MD and Virginia Longest, respectively. Edith SeVille Coale, MD Scholarships were awarded to seven women attending medical schools at Georgetown University School of Medicine, The George Washington University School of Medicine & Sciences, Howard University College of Medicine, and John Hopkins University School of Medicine. The Virginia Longest Nursing Scholarship was awarded to Margaret Granitto, Doctor of Philosophy student at The Catholic University of America, School of Nursing.

The Club and Foundation awarded $25,000 through its undergraduate scholarship program to the following eight recipients:

- Emma Anderson, International Affairs major student at George Washington University
- Ami Bevel, Biology major student at Trinity Washington University
- Nile Blass, General Studies student at Georgetown University
- Shayla Certain, Political Science major student at Howard University
- Brianna Davis, International Business major student at Howard University
- Gabrielle Rhoads, Photojournalism major student George Washington University
- Erika Scheer, International Affairs major student at George Washington University
- Savannah Willard, Classics major student at Georgetown University

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit, honors/community service and financial need.

The Zonta Club of Washington, D.C. is a member club of Zonta International, founded in Buffalo, NY in 1919, which is a leading global organization of professionals empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy. The Washington, D.C. Club has been serving women in the District of Columbia since it was formed in 1922.

The Zonta Club of Washington Foundation, a 501(c)3 organization, was formed in 1981 to carry out the charitable objectives of the Club. Funds to support the work of the Foundation are derived from member donations, gifts from the Club, fundraisers, as well as public donations.
