Zonta Club of Washington, D.C. and The Zonta Club of Washington Foundation have Undergraduate Scholarships available for 2021-2022

Washington, D.C., January 11, 2021... The Zonta Club of Washington, D.C. (Club) and The Zonta Club of Washington Foundation (Foundation) are pleased to announce that the 2021-2022 scholarship program is now available. Applicants for these scholarships should be women pursuing undergraduate degrees at accredited District of Columbia colleges and universities who demonstrate competency in handling academic studies along with an interest in serving the community.

The awards typically range between $2,000 and $5,000, depending on merit and availability of funds. Applicants must have a grade point average of at least 3.0, demonstrate a financial need, and be enrolled in an undergraduate program at one of the following institutions:

- American University
- The Catholic University of America
- Gallaudet University
- Georgetown University
- The George Washington University
- Howard University
- Trinity Washington University
- University of the District of Columbia

Scholarship applications must be submitted online no later than March 19, 2021, to be accepted for consideration. Past recipients are encouraged to apply. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit, honors/community service, and financial need.

The scholarship guidelines and online application are available on our club website at:
